Life has been likened to a highway. For the future this highway will lead each one of us in a different direction. But for the present we are traveling together through high school, an important segment of our life's journey. During the past year we have encountered detours along the way, but we have also had opportunities to explore side roads. Our travels, though, have always led us back to the main highway and the future that lies ahead for each one of us. We of the yearbook staff invite you now to look back upon the road traveled this past year . . . as portrayed in the 1964 ORACLE.

Board of Trustees

Mr. Theron L. McCuen, District Superintendent

Mr. McCuen, DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT, participated in an educational group tour of Scandinavian and Soviet countries. The group, composed of educators from all parts of the nation, made a comparative study of the school systems. The experience was invaluable to our superintendent, who brought back first hand information to the district.

Mr. Albert S. Gould, President and Member

Mr. M. Glenn Bultman, Clerk and Member

Mr. Mark Raney, Member

Mr. W. C. Myers, Member

The BOARD OF TRUSTEES had the tremendous responsibility of governing the Kern County Union High School District. The members joined to exchange ideas for the betterment and welfare of our school district. They contributed time, energy, and creative thought to such tasks as governing finances, employing personnel, adopting school courses and texts, and establishing district policies.

Mr. D. E. Ruggenberg, Member

The Principal's Message

Dr. J. Samuel Wallace

To the Students of Bakersfield High School:

More and more each year, we of the staff of Bakersfield High School, are impressed with the importance of providing the very best educational opportunities possible for students. We are pleased to note that our students have improved in seriousness of purpose immeasurably in recent years. More and more you are becoming to realize that education is the highway in life which leads to success. Those who make the journey with the greatest seriousness of purpose and with the closest attention to duty will make the greatest progress toward worthwhile objectives.

It is the sincere hope of the staff that your education will continue by whatever means that seems appropriate, long after you have graduated from Bakersfield High School. If this occurs, the highway of education which you have traveled here will stretch on through many miles of happiness.

Sincerely,
J. S. Wallace
Principal

Engineers of the road to learning

Many saw Mr. Berra in connection with his job of controlling and balancing classes. Coordination of data-processing also demanded his attention. Hard work and busy hours were his regular routine.

Mr. Martin was one of the hard working administrative staff who helped B.H.S. run smoothly. Among his responsibilities were over-seeing the physical plant, custodial staff, and assisting the principal in supervising student activities.

Mr. Robesky was assistant principal in charge of over-all curriculum. He was responsible for the supervision of the selection, adoption, and ordering of textbooks and instructional material for student use.

Miss Nelson served B.H.S. in many capacities. She was Dean of Women which made her responsible for the guidance of girls with special discipline and attendance problems. She organized the selection of Citizenship Award candidates and Bank of America Award winners. She also served as chairwoman of the scholarship committee.

Mr. Lucas as Dean of Men assisted with the guidance of boys in a special file. He worked in conjunction with the local law enforcement agencies. He was responsible for assisting the assistant principal in administrative services. In addition to these duties he served as advisor to the Boys' Inter-Racial Council.

planning commissioners for BHS.

Mr. Rodgers, Dean of Student Activities, charted the course for the student government program. He arranged and scheduled assemblies, promoted and supervised all club activities, and served as the official school historian.

Miss Bonnye Deal served B.H.S. as Director of Testing. She was responsible for the supervision of the group testing and placement program. The results of these tests aided teachers and counselors in guiding students.

Mr. Kamrar assumed the position of Campus Supervisor. He issued parking permits and enforced regulations regarding students and their cars. Another of his duties was keeping the campus free from loiterers.

The COUNSELING STAFF spent many hours guiding students in their daily life at BHS. They registered and placed students in classes according to their abilities always keeping in mind a schedule that would lead to post-high school training so that the students might fulfill vocational ambitions. Counselors advised students regarding study habits, vocational opportunities, and the choice of extra-curricular activities which would use such time wisely. Observing students' attendance records and receiving referrals from teachers concerning students' academic or behavior problems were other duties of the counselors.

Humanities

Self-realization of their own potential was fulfilled by the members of the ENGLISH DEPARTMENT. No longer restricted to the teaching of traditional grammar, the department enlarged its scope to include the complete humanities. Mr. Don Ringler and Mr. Hal Silverman created a stimulating and challenging program for teaching the humanities. Thus students expanded their knowledge by the study of philosophical traditions and intellectual and literary trends.

A significant element of the fresh program was team teaching. Different teachers delivered lectures on various subjects to large sessions of classes; then, smaller seminar groups discussed in depth the ideas presented in the lecture sessions. Lecture material was supplemented by a series of films, and additional reading was assigned, with an emphasis on the Classics. Complacent students found their minds stirred by controversial ideas that have occupied men's thoughts since antiquity.

"Those who are ignorant of the past are condemned to repeat it." Members of the SOCIAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT sought to impress students with the lessons learned from past experiences. Hopefully, the tragic pattern of wars and destruction would not be repeated by succeeding generations.

Of equally great import was the growth in understanding peoples of different backgrounds and ethnic origins and broadening of viewpoints. Students were guided in the study of man and the development of his cultures, social structures, political organizations, and economic systems by the social science teachers. Students were able to relate this newly-acquired knowledge to the international situation. To understand current affairs, both the reasons behind them and the significance in the modern world. they had to grasp a thorough understanding of man's social evolution.

The BUSINESS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT offered courses which increased a student's general knowledge in the field of business and vocational training that would lead to employment in the following areas: stenography, bookkeeping, clerical, and merchandising. Some of the practical courses given were typing and machine calculating. Other courses were planned to supplement the knowledge of commercial transactions necessary to handle, satisfactorily, the business dealings of daily life.

The INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT offered a variety of subjects including crafts, woodwork, cold metal, sheet metal, beginning and advanced auto shop, automotive machine shop, and welding. To assist students coming into the industrial arts field in locating their main interest, the department featured a first year exploratory program in which students were able to sample the fields of metal, wood, electricity, and auto shop.

Teachers cast

The FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT instructed students in Latin, French, German, and Spanish. The college preparatory classes emphasized language structure, and proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking. The modern language lab with individual booths equipped with earphones and tape recorders proved valuable in developing fluency in speech and accuracy in pronunciation. Through reading of foreign literature students gained an insight of foreign cultures and an appreciation of the literary achievements of foreign writers.

Students with talent and interest in music were guided in their studies by members of the MUSIC DEPARTMENT. Teachers endeavored to enlarge students' knowledge, to help fulfill musical potential, and to further understanding and appreciation of the lively art. Constant practice and continued public performances developed discipline and skill. Students in both instrumental groups and vocal groups combined their talents to present the musical comedy "The Music Man."

The BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT made a strenuous start at the beginning of the year with the motorability tests. The tests included feats in running, climbing a rope, and doing pull ups. After the initial testing period was completed, the boys were divided into two groups, classes of Freshmen and upper classmen. Activities in the P.E. Department included daily workouts, or calisthenics. There was class participation in some competitive sports such as football, basketball, and baseball.

The GIRLS' P.E. DEPARTMENT at Bakersfield High School was the largest in the state of California. The department offered many exceptional courses which most other high schools did not have. The instructors for those specialized subjects came to B.H.S. to fill the needs of the girls. Tap dance, archery, golf, modern dance, track, tennis, and basketball were just a few of the courses a student may choose. Varied classes were presented to those girls who excelled in certain fields such as Modern Dance Club, Aquanettes, Teen Teachers, Swim Team, and Tennis Team. With twelve teachers on the staff, it was not hard for the two thousand girls who passed through the gym each day to recognize why our P.E. Department was the best.

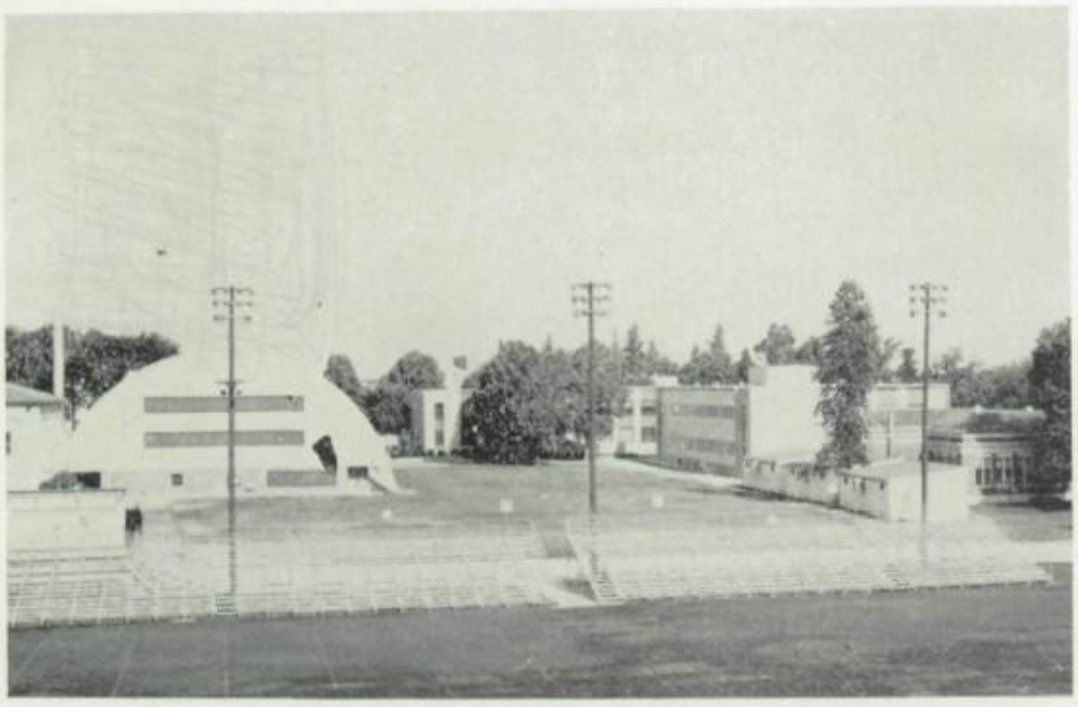
Students' thorough understanding of our system of numbers was the goal of the MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT. Mathematics was taught as a logical system, not merely as an arbitrary order. For the first time this year a new enriched program for students of honors classes was instituted. They studied both traditional math and the special program of the school Mathematics Study Group. The SMSG program placed particular emphasis on properties of real numbers.

The Quad and Elm Grove were



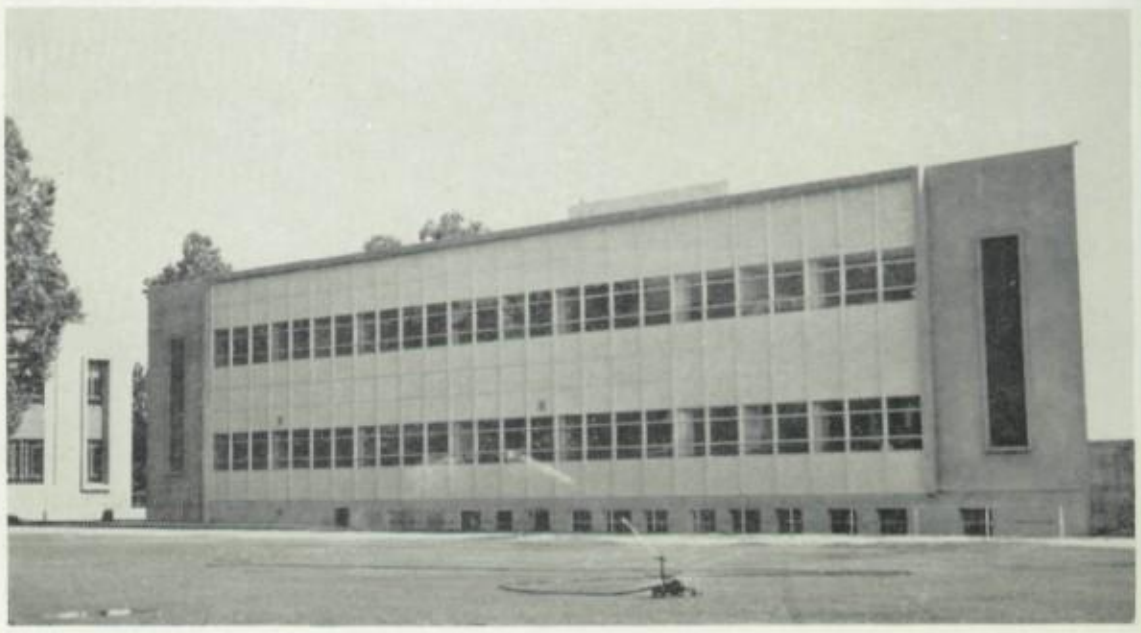
The Bakersfield High School campus—scene of over fifteen buildings covering over twenty-five acres.

Warren Hall, in which math and humanities classes were located, was dedicated to Chief Justice Earl Warren, Class of 1908.

The terminus of our vast campus was the Administration Building.

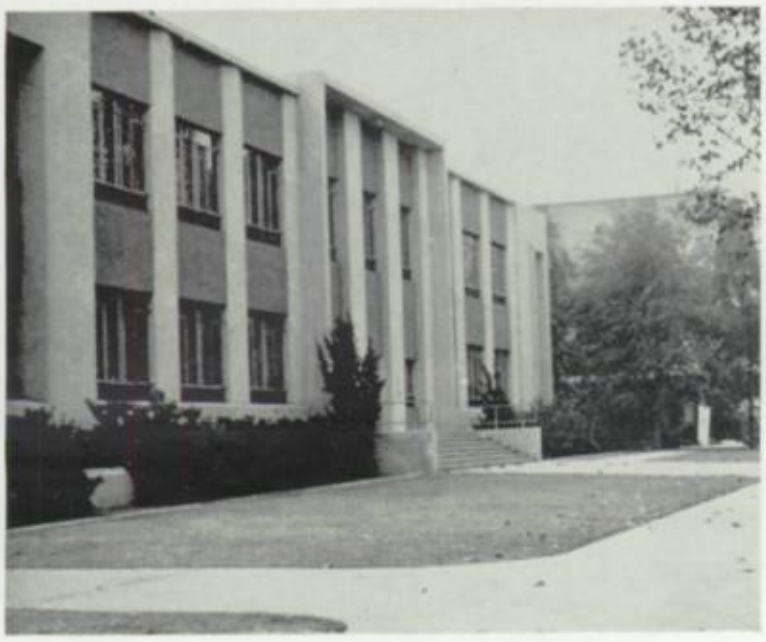
The original campus starting with approximately one and a half acres has grown to more than twenty-five acres through some sixty-six separate purchases. New buildings have replaced time worn ones. Growing from an enrollment of thirty students to more than four thousand Bakersfield High School is now the largest high school in the state.

Students of biology, chemistry, and physics classes were familiar with the Science Building.

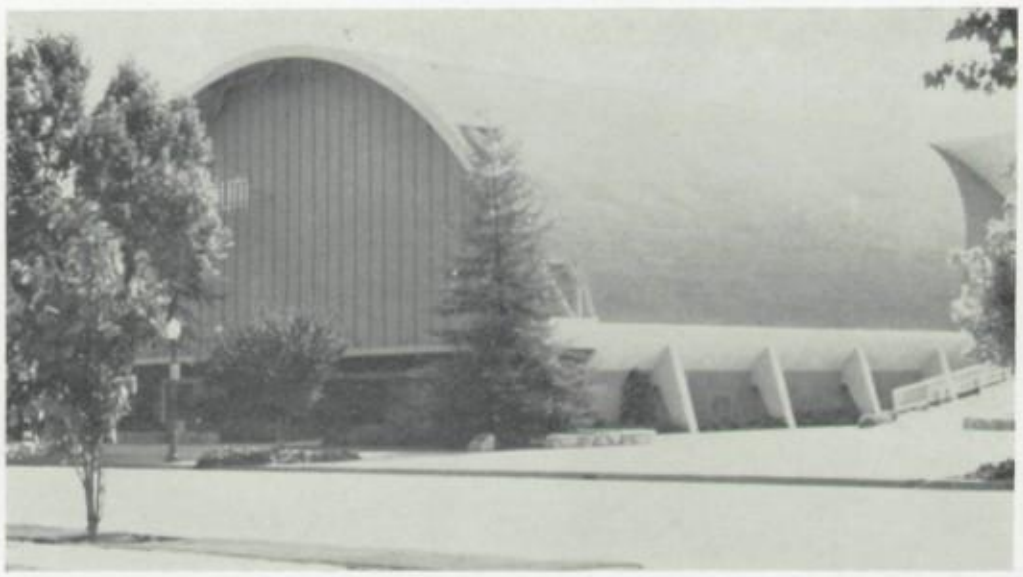


the crossroads of Drillerville.

Ludden Hall, named in honor of Mr. Arthur J. Ludden, a former principal from 1916 to 1922, was the center for home economics classes.



Harvey Auditorium traced its namesake to Judge T. N. Harvey, long-time president of the Board of Trustees.



The large and modern gymnasium echoed with the footsteps of P.E. students.

The spirit of the Cafeteria were the lively students who filled it each lunch hour.

The Quad was the center of social activities.

Mrs. J. Stutzman, Dr. Wallace's secretary.

Bookkeepers—H. Stover and W. Herndon.

The ATTENDANCE SECRETARIES devoted their time and energy to keeping attendance records, validating readmittance slips and off-campus permits. They also submitted monthly attendance reports to the state.

The BUSINESS OFFICE was responsible for the handling of student finance. The bookkeepers kept accounts of the finances of student government and organizations. They also handled money collected from the cafeteria and student store.

Much of the burden of administering a school the magnitude of BHS and having as diverse a student body as ours, fell to the CLERICAL PERSONNEL. The many, varied responsibilities were assumed by secretaries, bookkeepers, and switchboard operators.

the services of many people.

Lowell Nelson, Supervisor of Audio-Visual Services; Alice Fair, Secretary.

Teachers' requests for films, film projectors, overhead projectors, record players and records were filled by the VISUAL AIDS DEPARTMENT. Teachers were also notified when new and pertinent films were received. Besides these, the department performed innumerable other services for the teachers.

The REGISTRARS OFFICE kept the official records for all students attending B.H.S. The records included a list of grades, activities, and sports affiliations. The clerks requested and recorded transcripts for all new students, and forwarded many hundreds of transcripts each year to colleges and other schools.

Mrs. Kay Dale, Assistant; Mrs. Lillian Rea, Registrar.

Students who visited the library soon became familiar with the LIBRARIANS. They selected books to be added to our library and ordered them. They worked with teachers on the Faculty Library Committee in order to acquaint the faculty with the function of the library.

Mildred Schichtl, Assistant Librarian; Myrtle Schichtl, Head Librarian.

Lilian Howen, Girls' Nurse; Ione Bailey, Boys' Nurse.

The NURSES were always available to students who required personal health counseling or emergency aid. The school nurses served B.H.S. faculty members as well as students. Teachers were offered the opportunity of being vaccinated against 'flu at a reduced cost.

BHS ran smoothly thanks

The MAINTENANCE CREW performed many different services vital to the operation of BHS. They were responsible for keeping the furniture and buildings in good repair and maintaining the plumbing and electrical system in proper working order. The carpenters, painters, plumbers, and electricians who composed the staff worked diligently to maintain the school in efficient functioning order.

B.H.S. boasted the largest transportation system in the nation. Over two thousand students were transported to and from school daily. The P.E. Department also used the buses to carry students to various locations for classes. Drivers, both professionals and college students, were well trained.

The student body daily recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Camp Condor familiarized students of the 16th School District with the aims and purposes of Student Government.

The EXECUTIVE BOARD, the governing structure of the student body, acted as an intermediary between the students and the administration. The board was responsible for student activities, student meetings, student finance, and student policies. The board helped compile the Driller Way, strove for better communications among schools, reviewed the constitution, and promoted the selling of activity cards. The theme for the year, "Student Government Needs You," promoted school spirit and pride.

the "Beginning of the End."

Dr. Wallace informed Seniors of the responsibilities that lay ahead in their last year at BHS.

Decisions concerning the Senior Gift, Senior Banquet, and Miss BHS Contest were discussed at length by the SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL. The year was filled with months of planning for the most elaborate event of the year—The Senior Banquet—"Over the Rainbow." All too soon, Seniors realized, June 5 was approaching. Baccalaureate inspired seniors to strive for the most in life. On Class Day, Seniors collected memoirs as Oracles were signed. Graduation, anxiously anticipated, surprisingly brought mixed emotions of sadness and joy. The Whing Ding, sponsored by the PTA, provided Seniors with a memorable climax to their four years at BHS.

Students assembled Home Stretch, a booklet describing the final activities of the year.

Seniors reminisced about their four years at BHS at the Senior Banquet, "Over the Rainbow."

Junior card stunts were works of art.

The JUNIOR CLASS COUNCIL prepared card stunts for the home football games and sponsored a voters' guide. "Okie Stomp," the Junior Class dance, was a very casual affair. The students wore cowboy hats and danced amidst haybales. A professional hootenanny held at Harvey Auditorium was a fresh idea introduced by the Junior Class Council who planned it and worked on the publicity. The council also worked out the plans for the traditional Junior-Senior Prom.

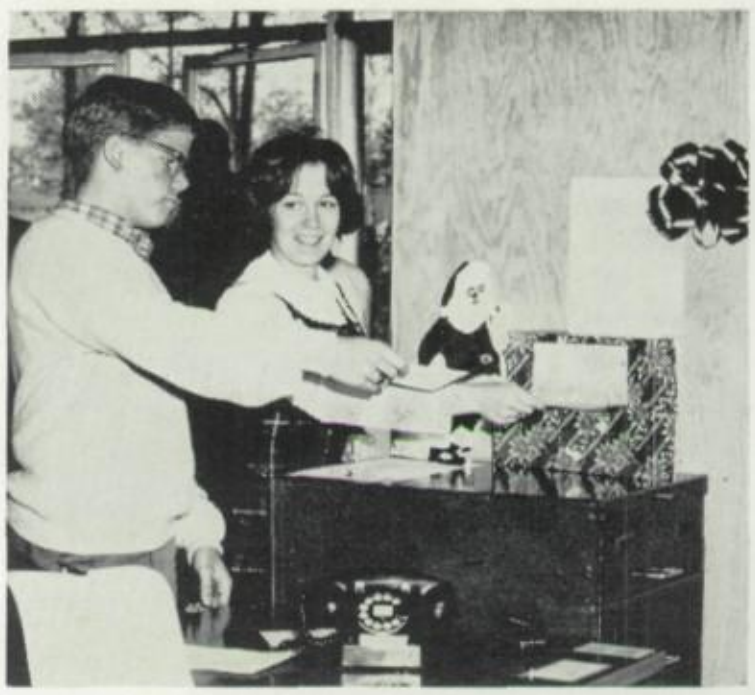
As the SOPHOMORE CLASS COUNCIL merged from the B.H.S. Freeway they looked back on a fully successful year. Their annual class dance, the Highland Fling, made a big hit with everyone, and the annual Sophomore magazine sale was a huge success. The class of '66 also sponsored such projects as noon sales and service projects.



By selling magazines Sophs gained in personal experience while adding money to their treasury

The FRESHMAN CLASS COUNCIL'S first dance, the Trojan Trample, was held after the Foothill game. The Frosh service project for Christmas consisted of a clothing drive for the less fortunate families of the Appalachian Mountains. The council members also co-operated with the I.S.C. in the selling of tickets for a noon movie which raised money for the American Field Service.

The 1964 ORACLE STAFF produced the largest yearbook in Bakersfield High School's history. The staff demonstrated creativity and originality in making an attractive and unique Oracle. Pages and pages of pictures illustrating Driller life, school activities, and academic achievement testified to the skill and interest of the members.

o publish the '64 Oracle.

The ORACLE STAFF was seen making new routes around campus. Not waiting for the lights to change, the staff members sold ads, took pictures, and turned out the ultimate Oracle. Cropping pictures, interviewing adv'sors, and writing copy took up the staff's time. New paths and a new Oracle were the achievements of the ever-racing members. Mrs. Robesky gave the signals and directions, while the 1964 staff carried through with them.

The Oracle Staff had its ups and downs.

Sign on the dotted line, please.

The Oracle is all footwork.

QUILL AND SCROLL, an international honor society for high school journalists, was composed of members from the Oracle, Blue and White, and Ikon Staffs. New members were initiated at the Publications Banquet at which time awards and presentations were made.

Shifting into first gear, the IKON STAFF, supervised by Mr. James Scruggs, appealed to English teachers for writings from students in their classes. Speeding into second gear, the staff critiqued the work and made a "dummy" magazine. Finally, in high gear, workers printed and sold the periodical.

The signpost for Bakersfield High School students was the BLUE AND WHITE. The energetic staff published thirty-five regular editions plus the special Christmas, Cub, and Senior editions. The newspaper carried headline stories of the week, club news and many social activities. The sports page supplied scores and stories of the teams and a calendar of coming sports events. The staff also sponsored the "Rival Romp" and a Miss B.H.S. candidate.

Blue and White Co-Editor, Judy Liggett, wrote controversial editorials.

Campus artists took to the highway for the annual ART CLUB trip to Los Angeles. The tour included art schools and Bullock's Scholastic Art Festival. Noon sales, a post-basketball game dance, and a get-acquainted party comprised major activities. The Club's long range project is to build a model derrick at California and "G" streets, to symbolize the spirit of Bakersfield High School.

Students interested in architecture and engineering, and with a high grade average, comprised STUDENT ARCHITECTURAL ASSOCIATION. Activities for the twenty members included field trips to architects' offices and building sites, noon movies, noon sales, and service projects. In May the annual Eagles Club Awards were presented to further a future architect along the road to success.

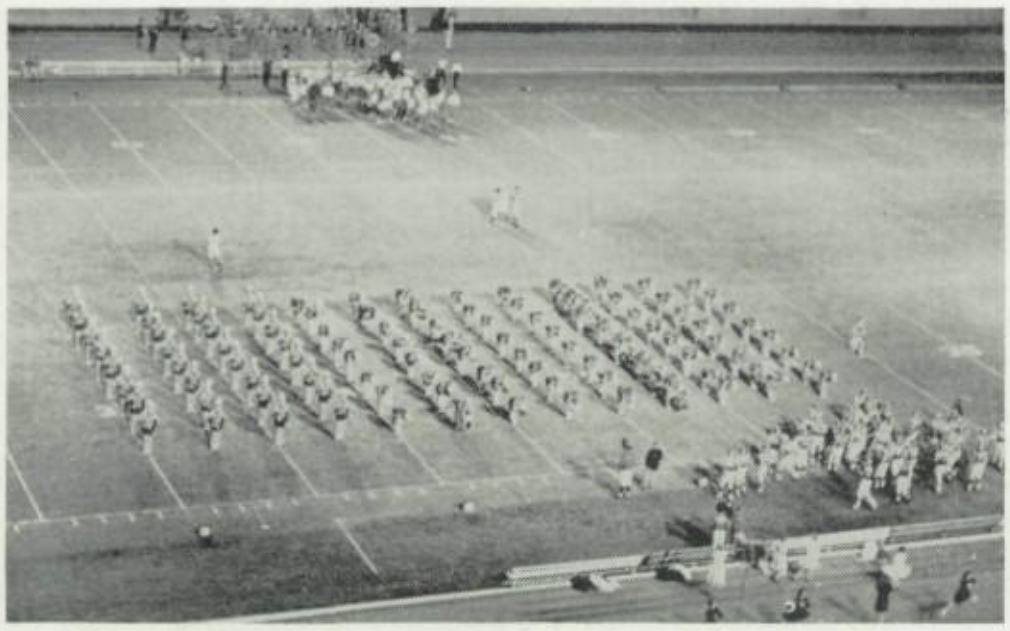
BHS bands captured schoo



The band "payed their respects" to Driller football fans.

Marching in precision, the 1964 DRILLER BAND showed extensive talent. The members united to build a refreshing and vast assortment of melodic sounds. Under Col. Moore, the band continued the tradition of leading the Drillers to victory. It cultivated and advanced school spirit from the Freshmen to the Seniors. In the spring, the Driller Band performed with excellence for the Spring Concert. Practice and hard work proved to be successful, because the band was chosen to play at community affairs throughout the year.

Talented student singers, with a special interest in the music of Elizabethan England, formed the MADRIGAL SINGERS. Last year the singers played the roles of the townspeople in the Student Body Musical, "The Music Man." They also participated in the Christmas program, "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens.

The CONCERT CHOIR of 1964 brought enchantment, melody, and a full scale of harmony to all who listened. The choir sang at benefits, concerts, and seasonal shows throughout the year. The roadway to music was opened, while the members gave forth with their voices. Enthusiastic singers who wanted to spread the sound of music everywhere, joined to make a melodic chorus. Mr. Lora shared the thrill of the applause for the training of all the members.

The members of BOYS' CHORUS were united by a common interest—singing. Prerequisites for membership included a genuine interest in music and desire to improve one's vocal ability and musical knowledge. Aspirants were then required to pass an audition. The members worked the entire year and gained valuable experience by giving many public performances. They sang at various school functions and community organizations.

ADVANCED GIRLS GLEE was a performance group open to interested girls who qualified by displaying their talents at an audition. Requirements were a voice of above average quality, the ability to sight-read, good pitch and intonation, and a true love for singing. They were also required to maintain a B average in order to continue with the class. The select sixty-member group met daily in a class to improve their already acquired skills. During the year they sponsored various activities for the purpose of raising money to purchase new robes in the future. Although primarily a class they also functioned as an extracurricular activity. Throughout the year they performed at various civic functions in the community. Their efforts were well appreciated and widely acclaimed.

The ORCHESTRA advanced fine arts on campus by presenting the Pops Concert in October and the Spring Concert in May which featured two soloists. Each year the group participates in the All County Orchestra and All State Orchestra. In addition to these activities they played background music for the Christmas Pageant and the Modern Dance Concert, which added to the success of the programs. The Orchestra contained full symphony instruments. As a money-making project for the general uniform fund members sold chocolate bars to the Student Body and programs at their concerts. On a lighter side, the Orchestra initiation was a highlight, especially for the freshman members.

VISUAL SERVICE CLUB had a year filled with many activities and service projects. Members were responsible for operating movie and other audio-visual equipment and taking care of the public address system for dances. Students learned to operate the equipment and had to pass tests to earn ratings of apprentice, journeyman, and technician. The freshman and upper-classmen clubs combined to gather food for the Christmas baskets sent to the needy, and to put on the annual end-of-the-year banquet. The club went to the Fox Theater for a Christmas party.

Appropriately named, the BOYS SERVICE CLUB was composed of boys who served the many needs of Bakersfield High School students. They did an outstanding job of distributing programs at the fall football games. The football programs included the line-up of the teams and their game pictures. Winter basketball games also called on the group for publication of the pamphlets.

The HOSTESS CLUB performed a great service for Bakersfield High by serving and ushering whenever they were needed at many school affairs. For the past twenty-eight years active participation has provided each girl on campus with the opportunity of aiding her school. An after-game dance was sponsored to provide money for a scholarship.

The MODERN DANCE concert, which was held on February 25, was unique and exciting. The program was divided into three segments for advanced, intermediate, and beginning groups. Themes ranged from "Segregation" presented by the advanced members in which the club officers held leading parts, one of "Mythology" and a "Hootenanny" for the intermediates, to "Bells" for the beginning group. Interpretation of sounds and moods was the keynote of the program. Members who participated in the program were responsible for making their own costumes, which had been designed by Mrs. Margo Robesky, director and advisor of Dance Club. Prospective members of Modern Dance Club were given tryouts where they demonstrated their dancing skill. More advanced club members composed their own dances as tryouts.

The Modern Dance Club officers were Peggy Anderson, Pres.; Marsha Owens, V-Pres.; Gail Sisson, Sec.; and Marilyn Caciuc, Treas.

The BEGINNING APPRENTICES were required to complete one term of elementary dance instruction. From this group forty members were chosen on a basis of performance of dance skills and an original composition to become ADVANCED APPRENTICES. Following acceptance into the club, girls were required to study an additional six weeks of advanced dance. As apprentices hard work and strenuous exercise were the general rule of the day. The ultimate goal for all members was the annual Modern Dance Concert in February. Talent, in the form of skills and original choreography, was evident in all the dance routines. The many hours of hard work and practice resulted in an ever superb performance. The club members represented well, the field of dance.

The NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE of Bakersfield High School was composed of students interested in speech, who had earned a minimum of twenty-five points by participating in speech tournaments. The League carried on the tradition of inter-scholastic competition as it was one of the oldest organized clubs on campus. The students traveled to district schools where they entered such individual events as Original speaking, Oratorical speaking, Humorous, Impromptu, and Extemporaneous speaking as well as Debate. Bakersfield High School's N. F. L. ranked in the top five clubs in the nation and produced many of the top Kern County speakers. Under the leadership of Mr. Mendal Overholt, debate coach, who retired in January, Bakersfield High debaters won many trophies and championships.

NATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY, an organization for drama students, gave members an opportunity to display their talent. Drama students worked on improving characterizations, student direction, and stage crafts. Under the guidance and direction of Miss Bartholomew, the organization presented many excellent dramatic productions. Outstanding plays for the year were the Student Body play, "Pygmalian" by George Bernard Shaw with Carolyn Nelson playing the part of Eliza, and the Senior Class play, a melodrama, "Love Rides the Rails" with Dell Rollins characterizing Prudence Hopewell. Other major productions were the Christmas pageant "A Christmas Carol" and a musical "The Music Man" by Merideth Wilson.

BIOLOGY CLUB traveled the highways and byways of California on their many field trips to Morro Bay to study marine life and to Mt. Pinos to study wild flowers. The special interest organization held a cupcake sale to help finance the trips. The club was also responsible for maintaining the interesting display case in the science building.

Last year the ELECTRONICS CLUB encouraged students interested in "ham" radio operation to join this club. Typical activities included guest speakers from Bakersfield, visiting electronics establishments, and frequent trips to the radio and television transmitter sites around Kern County. The boys also learned the techniques of radio and television operation by going to the local stations. Another important project carried out by this group was continuing the B.H.S. school radio station W6EM.

CAMPUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE was a discussion forum composed of faculty members and students who were selected to represent a cross-section of our diverse student body. The group was established to form a link between the student body and the school administration. The organization discussed many different topics and offered suggestions for campus improvement to the Executive Board.

The Organizations Commission met to insure a smooth running calendar of school events.

Under the capable leadership of Commissioner Roberta Rudnick ideas were presented and discussed for the purpose of re-evaluating Miss BHS contest.

nity on BHS campus.

ORGANIZATIONS COMMISSION united club presidents to further relations among clubs. The commission sponsored the Miss B.H.S. contest, collaborated with Executive Board to promote campus pride, and attempted to coordinate all clubs and present an all clubs assembly. Organizations Commission also instigated a drive that resulted in a joint class council meeting that revamped the organization of the Miss B.H.S. contest. A complete evaluation of all clubs on campus was conducted by the commission at the end of the year.

Y.M.C.A. created

The Y.M.C.A. youth and government program lasted a half year. The idea was patterned after state government. The program was comprised of elections, introduction and debate of bills, training conferences, a model legislature which included senators, assemblymen, legislative aids and reporters. Meeting in Sacramento, the students participated in sessions that simulated the legislative and executive branches of the government. The purpose of the program was to deepen understanding, interest, and respect of the American way of government.

The YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION was newly organized on campus this year. The club offered Christian fellowship among girls who shared a variety of interests and who had a genuine desire to serve their school and their community.

YMCA Cottage served countless cups of coffee.

HORIZON CLUB was a part of the national organization, Camp Fire Girls, designed especially for girls in the ninth through the twelfth grades. Membership was open to all girls in this age goup and previous membership in Camp Fire Girls was not necessary. Activities ranged from service projects such as hospital aides and assistant group leaders to camping, little theatre, and Horizon Club Conferences.

The Campfire Headquarters was the base of operations for the Horizon Club.

The PARENT - TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION of Bakersfield High School was active in serving our school this year. In an effort to bring parents a better understanding of the school, they sponsored a Back-to-School Night, during which parents visited classes and became acquainted with the course and the teacher. To finance a scholarship they also sponsored a buffet dinner.

P.T.A. Board members were: Mrs. F. T. Woodward, Rec. Sec.; Mrs. B. Cook, Pres.; Mrs. J. W. Wright, Treas.; Mrs G. R. Krouse, 1st V. Pres.; Mrs. H. B. Stanford, 2nd V. Pres.

Mrs. Parmalee and Rev. Stuebbe boosted the swimming pool drive.

Enthusiastic support of B.H.S. was the vital spirit of the BOOSTERS. This organization was composed of eager fathers of Drillerites who shared an active interest in the school and were willing to devote time and energy toward the welfare of Drillerville.

The rush of the first week presented dilemmas to freshmen who searched for buildings and classes. This was too much for some new-comers and lost students weren't an uncommon sight. Upperclasmen will never forget rushing for lockers, difficult classes, and new teachers.

Road to wisdom traveled by pupils

This past year, many students became quite proficient at psychoanalyzing their teachers. Students observed teachers sit on desks, fidget, and pace the floor, and they worked long and hard at analyzing these assorted mannerisms. To their surprise, though, these students discovered that the teachers were trying to figure them out! This proved to be an almost impossible task.

nder direction of teachers.

Some students will never forget their difficult classes and even more difficult teachers. Each class had its own group of varied personalities. The trouble-makers seemed troublesome to the teachers, but they lent a gayer touch to the hour. On the road leading to college, the seniors will someday realize the importance of these days in class.

Teams were cheered on to victory by eager BHS'ers as opposing teams tried their skill against the BHS fighting force. The road to victory was long and hard, but under the direction of capable coaches, victories proved rewarding. Action was great in the stands and on the field as teams accelerated their skill and defeated their foes.

The Varsity Spirit Leaders' enthusiastic participation in rallies and assemblies was a step in the right direction toward furthering school spirit. An example of this was seen when they led eager BHS'ers in the annual yell competition. Varsity Spirit Leaders also represented Bakersfield High in the yearly downtown Christmas Parade. As a result of their efforts, spirit reached an all-time high in Drillerville.

Danny Brown and Jeanne Ellingston, Danny Driller and Dotty Driller, performed many duties for Bakersfield High School. Danny and Dotty assisted the Song and Yell Leaders and exemplified the typical BHS rooters. In addition to these activities, they acted as the host and hostess to visiting teams.

The place was Elm Grove belfry; the date, 1895. A bell rang to dismiss BHS students. In 1906 the administration building was constructed and the bell was stored until 1941. The Block B Society found the bell, painted it, and decided to use it as a victory bell. Our sixty-nine-year-old Victory Bell is the oldest remaining symbol of school spirit.

Before the games—spirit rallies

The Apprentice Song Leaders added spice to the rallies in Griffith Field.

Vim, vigor, and vitality were the watchwords of this year's Varsity Yell Leaders.

The combined efforts of the cheerleaders and the Driller Band produced spirited rallies.

Early risers roasted the Rebels.

After the games—dances.

Victory stomped.

Spirit was the driving force in our rallies this past year as members of the student body accelerated their energies and yelled to their hearts' content. By following the signals of the spirit leaders, students helped speed the teams along the road to victory.

Assemblies provided on Christmas with Scrooge was the theme of this year's Christmas Assembly.

Seniors learned how to get money for college in one not-so-easy lesson at the Scholarship Information Assembly.

At various times last year students put on their brakes, stopped studying, and enjoyed informative and pleasing programs sponsored by different groups on campus. Assemblies provided an opportunity for students to obtain information about school life, elections, and careers. Student talent was often included and performers gained knowledge also, but through the experience of presenting the programs.

Young America in Government

A student take-over occurred during Teen-Age City Government Day.

Ana Velasco—Peru

Taru Sistonen—Finland

Fourteen positions were filled by BHS students for Teen-Age City Government Day this past year as the younger generation "took over" the city for a day.

Students spoke through the ballot box.

Pilar Hernandez, from Mexico; Taru Sistonen, Finland; and Ana Velasco, Peru, were welcomed by Bakersfield High. Pilar came by invitation of an interested family, Taru visited under the auspices of International Christian Youth Exchange, and Ana through the American Field Service program. Although these ambassadors of goodwill traveled to America by different routes, they shared a common experience—learning about America while teaching Americans about their country.

Representatives also had the opportunity to meet students from high schools throughout the state.

Congratulations DRILLERS of 1963! This year's football team was the fifth in the history of the team to join the school's perfect record list, with a 9-0 season score. Led by a proud Coach Briggs, they defeated such foes as Antelope Valley, McLane, and our traditional rival E.B. They were the first all-winning team since 1939, and the first in Briggs's eleven years of coaching at B.H.S.

The Drillers were more than a football team to the students; they were a symbol of Bakersfield High's strength and determination. The Driller men will forever remember that they were members of a unique society, in which each contributed his part to the whole.

The individuals composing this team were outstanding. At the Annual Fall Sports Awards Evening, Fred Parker received the Harry Coffee Award for the Most Outstanding Driller, and Bill Rankin was recipient of the Frank Gifford Award for the Most Inspirational Driller. Of the All-City Linemen and Backs, six of the nine players were Drillers who were chosen as superior in their certain positions from the players of the week. They were offensively: Mike Anderson, right end; Bill Rankin, tackle; Fred Parker, left halfback; Jerry Stanley, center; and John Wyatt, quarterback. Dick Henken, guard, and Mike Anderson, linebacker, were defensively superior.

The SANDABS, led by Coach Duane Anderson, enjoyed a thrilling season, placing second only to East High's Daggers in the tight SYL race. A good strong line, led by Porter Lawerence and Paul Wachob, and a fast backfield piloted by Allan Bostick and Jerry Mathews were the two main elements that kept this year's team on their winning ways. The Sandabs blanked five of their eight opponents and allowed only twenty-six points to be scored against them all season while stacking up a staggering total of 220 points. The 'Dabs only defeat came in their last game against East High.

The future looked rather unpromising for the ROUGHNECKS first three games, as they were defeated by the Garces (varsity), Tulare, and Porterville High Schools. They regained stamina in their game against Foothill and defeated them 20-6. Defeat again overshadowed them during their next two games against North and South Highs. Coached by John Copely the J.V.'s defeated East High in a final burst of team unity, in one of their hardest fought games of the season.

ROUSTABOUTS football team was unified and hard-hitting. They had faced such worthy foes as the Garces B class, Tulare, and South Highs undaunted and undefeated, until that fateful Saturday morning at East's Stadium. During this game, the team was constantly plagued with penalties and fumbles. But the season had been blemished only once, making the season record 6-1. Coach Don Cornett named Gary Johnson, Paul Pechin, Bob Harding, Leon Strupp as outstanding players during individual games.

The BITS suffered a rocky season this past year. After losing their opening game to Delano 13 to 0 on their home field, the Bits were outscored by Arvin 13 to 12, by Foothill 6 to 0, and by East High 14 to 6. Bouncing back from these losses the Bits blanked Shafter by a score of 21 to 0. The light-weights continued their winning streak by winning over North High 14 to 7 and South High 9 to 6. In their closing game, Taft proved to be too much for the Bits, beating them 7 to 6.

Daily workouts in the sand at Bakersfield Beach conditioned the team and improved performances tremendously. The Speedsters took honors in all their separate divisions: Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Sophomore-Freshman. Coach Glenn Beerline named Joe Fouseca, Clint Hood and Clark Mitchell as outstanding Driller harriers.

The pride of the DRILLER WRESTLING TEAM was great. They worked hard, wrestled hard, and overcame early setbacks. After losing important matches with South and E.B., our men developed the spirit and power to take the S.Y.L. championship and tournament held at our gym on February eighth. The Drillers grabbed five individual championships which went to Barry Nall, Skip Blake, Dean Christensen, Mike Munoz, and Greg Billington. The Drillers traveled to Fresno for the Central Section tournament in which thirty-one schools took part. The team finished in third place and our men took two seconds, three thirds, and one fourth place.

Scores soared as crowds roared!

They did it again! The DRILLER BASKETBALL team, coached by an outstanding mentor Jay Mulvehal, rebounded into the Co-Championship of the SYL with East High. In their second league meeting with East High, the Derrickmen fell short of the sole championship of the SYL as the final buzzer left the Drillers with a 45-46 loss to the Blades, giving the hoopsters from East a share of the leadership. The Drillers took advantage of their speed and size to help them play their usual game of heads-up basketball. For the season coach Mulvehal named Willie Nutt, Mike Anderson, and Willie Winston as exceptional players.

What a successful season this was for the SANDABS! They commenced the season strongly, but rather waveringly, for we lost two out of two games to Garces and Roosevelt. Coached by Duane Anderson, they gathered team momentum as the season progressed, finally capturing their SYL championship, as did two other dribbler teams, the Drillers and Roughnecks. The Elmer Stinson, Andrew Hill, and Paul Pechin combination was a constant plague to less nimble and dextrous foes. With a little more experience and maturity, some of these players will be able weapons competing against Driller adversaries next year.

The season seemed to jinxed for the BITS this year, as they lost three games by one point, one game by two points, and one game by three points. These freshman and sophomore lightweights, coached by Ward Gates, were seventh in their league. They were tough and defiant, despite their league standing, and many exhibited skill which might be Driller material in a couple of years. Terry Hull, Vince Ludd, and Jess Nieto were some of the Bits' outstanding players.

posted excellent records.

Nothing could stop this year's fired-up JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL squad as they streaked their way to greatness and another SYL championship. Headed by exceptional players Pete Cross, Larry Harris, and Jim Olcott, the Roughnecks exhibited a superior record of eighteen wins against only one loss for the season. The JV's only stumbling block came against a quick, fast-moving force from North High midway in the season.

With fast pitching and heavy hitting the DRILLER BASEBALL TEAM was destined for success in the South Yosemite League standings. Afternoon pitching sessions and batting practices helped Coach Charles Sarver to hone his team to a sharp edge. The championship of the SYL and a chance for the valley title sparked the Drillers on to victory after victory. Returning lettermen and last year's Junior Varsity players who were eager to join in the varsity spotlight filled out the roster with experienced horsehiders. Two wins over Hanford and Mount Whitney started the season off well for the sluggers from Bakersfield High who proclaimed to their prospective opponents to take notice of their intentions.

A strong JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL squad turned out in full force this season. Headed by Coach Don Harrison, the Driller hopefuls decided to take the winning road and stay on it. A combination of a strong pitching staff and a hustling infield and outfield rounded out the JV team. The Roughnecks took advantage of their strength early in the season and used it wisely against opposing schools in the SYL.

Running a quarter mile every day strengthened and conditioned the Bakersfield High DRILLER SPRINT MEN. At the beginning of the spring semester all boys interested in track events began this training which conditioned legs. The Driller track fans enthusiastically supported a squad which never failed to win the race against time.

Daily workouts consisting of hard exercising along with running miles and miles around the track at Griffith Stadium strengthened the DISTANCE SQUAD immensely and got them in shape to face the rough and ready competitors from the other SYL teams. Under the direction of their coach, Miss Marian Locher, the GIRLS' SWIM TEAM completed their seventh year of active competition. This competitive swimming group which participated in the South Yosemite League held tryouts at the beginning of each semester. The new members were accepted on the basis of their swimming ability. They had to fulfill grade requirements and have a drive to swim in competition.

Competing in the South Yosemite League, the BOYS' SWIM TEAM swam toward victory. Mr. David Slagle coached the boys in hours of practice in such events as free style, breaststroke, backstroke, and butterfly. The team also boasted a four-man unit for medley events.

FRONT ROW, left to right: D. Jones, E. Webster, J. Pon, C. Webster, G. Belter, M. Payne, S. Pearman, T. Lingo, J. Robesky, S. Marsh, A. Cline, W. McPheeters, D. Fowler, J. Metcalf. SECOND ROW: R. ...into aqua-triumph!

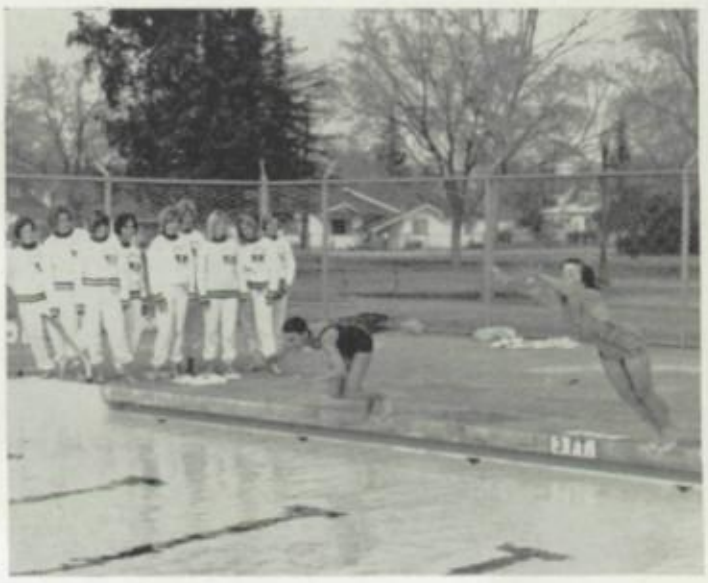
Silhouetted perfection.

Racing the clock.



Come on, girls, only one lap left!

Form like this represents many hours of practice.

Events of a student body close to 4,500 strong contributed to the colorful panorama of activity upon the pages of the 1964 ORACLE. Within lecture halls, science labs and classrooms, in campus activities and on the athletic field, the staff compiled the events of student activity at Bakersfield High School.

To each member of the Oracle staff I extend my thanks--thanks for writing copy, selling ads, typing, and the countless other jobs done and done well.

The staff could not have functioned smoothly, however, without an "engineer" to solve problems and guide us in decisions. Mrs. Barbara Robesky did this and much more. To her goes my deepest appreciation. It has been a privilege and a rewarding experience to work with her on the Oracle.

Thanks to Mr. Al Dennis and his well-trained crew for many, many hours of work in taking, developing, and printing over 600 pictures seen in the Oracle.

My grateful appreciation goes to Dr. Wallace and the entire administration for their willing assistance and cooperation. During the year Mr. Sid Sheffield and Larry Welz gave invaluable assistance. Thank you Mr. Sheffield for your patience and understanding and thank you Larry for your advice and many wonderful ideas on the art work.

Mr. Ray Geers, who took the Senior pictures as well as the advertising pictures, Mr. Robert Ozias, of Lederer, Street & Zeus Company, Mr. Robert Thain, of California Art and Engraving Company, and the S. K. Smith Company all deserve praise for their professional touches.

It has been the hard work and devotion of all of these people that has made this fifty-first edition of one of the nation's largest yearbooks more than ever before a portrayal of what Drillers do and how they do it.

For Porky-

Hi Bev!!!

Well, here I am again with another, !! letter. This one you can't throw away...!! Well, what were you up to last weekend? I had a blast!! Carol, me, and Barb went to the show. It was real good!!! See, I can't wait till I get my drivers ~~ruse~~ license. I will come over and visit you. I promise, I will!!! Believe me??! We'll hit the town some night (with me driving) I can't wait. What if we have a flat tire!! I would just die. I will let you change it!! O.K?? I don't know how. I guess I best learn. Well Bev, you be good now and don't you dare do anything I wouldn't do. Be good to Chuck and no more fights, understand?? Well, have fun this summer and maybe I will be over some time. Just to visit!! Well, I can't think of nothing else to say so bye bye

Hi Sweet One. I Sure Hope
You had fun This year, I didn't Except for Bookkeeping. I really enjoyed being a class with such a Sweet Thing, MATHER of fact.
I hope you and Chuck are getting along and are not getting Too Serious. hh. hh I hope I see you Next year and are in your classes. You are so much fun, There aren't many Girls as Sweet as you. Hope you have fun this Summer and may be I'll see you Around.
Be good and don't get in To any Serious Trouble. have fun
And if you do name it after me hh.
God Bless you Always

Love ya.

Clint
Hood

I Love You,
I Love You,
I Love You,
I do

Bev,
We've known you for three years and you're always been a blast to be with. You haven't changed and that's good because you'll always been sweet.
Have fun.
Carolyn Prout

Bev,
Hi, it's me,
I'd say "Be good this summer" but knowing you, you won't be good no matter what I say.
Be nice to Chuck and the best of luck in Summer School, you'll need it. (Ha! Ha!)
Love ya

Bev -
To a sweet girl who I have enjoyed borrowing
typing paper from!
Good luck next year
and have fun this summer! God be with you always.

Don't get Excited
I Love Monkeys
Too.

I hope I don't lose a good friend just because School is out, Maybe we could keep in touch. Besides
Linda you're the Sweetist Girl
I know, and I really hope you stay that way.
Some time if you & Chuck want to double call me, I would Love. I'm sorry I'm taking up the space but since we're good Bookkeeping Buddies I know you want mind. ~~HA~~ I think Mr. Mitchell is a blast, don't you? What you going to do during the summer? I bet you'll have fun. Cough!!
I'll introduce you to Linda Tomorrow, I think You & her are about the same speed. Don't let Chuck read this, he might not like it. don't let Linda read it either because she is overly suspective. Besides that she doesn't trust me. HA
She really should but I can't convince her of it. I wish I could. I hope I beat you on my grades in Bkkg.
I probably. I guess I had better leave the space below for Chuck. Stay Sweeeet. Lots of Lovin
Clint.

Bev -
I didn't think you would ever grow-up
and attend high school.
You always seemed to be a little sister and now here you are as a junior in high school - well, I wish you all the luck in your future years.
I hope your next two years will be filled with ~~happiness~~. God Brainy Bless you.
A friend,
Sharon Kennedy

Bev-
You're one of the sweetest, nicest girls I know. Always stay just as you are.

Berry Jean-
Since I have known you you have usually been a swell kid. It has been nice knowing you and I hope that I'll know you for many years to come.
Your great brother,
Allan Danshier

Bev-
To a real sweet girl that I enjoy seeing, except it makes me mad to see you make love to Jerry but I guess it makes you both happy. Too bad your going with another guy though. The reason you didn't copy my homework was because your to dumb. Well I guess I'll quit now so stay loveble honey.
Your old standby,
Ken

Bev-
I have known you for a long time and I wish you the best of luck!
-Jeff Sampson-

Bev-
you're a real sweet girl who I have enjoyed being in the same English class with, even if it was Hurliman's.
Best of luck.

BEV!
EVEN THOUGH YOU ARE NICE AND GOOD LOOKING
YOU STILL COULDN'T BEAT
THE GREAT. MAYBE WE'LL GET SOME CLASSES TOGETHER
NEXT YEAR AND I CAN HELP
YOU
LOVE YA

Bev-
It's really been a blast knowing you these past years. I just recently, through, because until about two years ago you just weren't the crazy, sarcastic, sweet girl with a sparkling personality. But finally you entered stage of life and dig things now. Best of luck at B.H.S. and the rest of college. Stay sweet in spite of "trouble." Ha! Take care of Chuckie Babe and have a swell summer.

Always,
Steve "64"

Bev-
Keep sweet
Stay sweet
Like you are Like you've been
Keep your chin up
Keep your head high
Keep your face shining
Keep your eyes sparkling
Keep your personality
Keep your sense of humor
Keep your sweet disposition
Keep always
Love,
Steve Carter

Bev-
It has been a lot of fun with you in my Typing Class. Have lots of fun this summer and Good-luck through the years to come.
Always

Bev—
Even if you are always cold & your jokes are kind of corny, it's still been a pleasure knowing you & I hope we see each other this summer. I hope you enjoy your junior year as much as I have enjoyed mine.

always a friend!
Darryl Overstreet

Beverly—
As you read this part over you will be surprised for I wrote back here instead of the front,
So if I see you again next year at the end of the year, reserve a place in the front for me. See you next year.
John Lindsay

Bev.
I really enjoyed meeting you this year in geometry. I hope we have another class together next year. Stay as nice as you are.
friends always.
